

ANTI-MONEY LAUNDERING COUNCIL

CITIZEN'S CHARTER
UPDATED AS OF MARCH 2025

ANTI-MONEY LAUNDERING COUNCIL

CITIZEN'S CHARTER HANDBOOK 2025, 1st Edition

I. Mandate

In line with the State's policies to protect and preserve the integrity of the Philippine Financial System, including the confidentiality of bank accounts and to ensure that the Philippines shall not be used as a money laundering site for the proceeds of any unlawful activity, the AMLC is tasked to implement Republic Act No. 9160, otherwise known as the Anti-Money Laundering Act of 2001, as amended (AMLA), and Republic Act No. 10168, otherwise known as the Terrorism Financing Prevention and Suppression Act of 2012 (TFPSA).

The AMLC performs several functions under the AMLA. This includes being an anti-money laundering/countering terrorism financing (AML/CTF) authority, financial intelligence unit (FIU), money laundering/terrorism financing (ML/TF) investigator, government representative on ML/TF cases, implementor of targeted financial sanctions, and as an asset management unit.

II. Vision

We envision AMLC to be globally recognized as the anti-money laundering and counter-terrorism financing authority and partner for a crime-free financial system for the Filipino people.

The AMLC envisions itself as an institution that is known internationally as the Philippine's lead agency in terms of AML/CTF and an important contributor in ensuring that the country's financial system is crime-free, law-abiding and responsive to the needs of its people.

III. Mission

The AMLC protects and preserves the integrity of the Philippine financial system through financial intelligence and investigation, prosecution of money laundering, terrorism and proliferation financing activities, ensuring compliance of covered persons with ML/TF laws and extension of international cooperation.

The AMLC exists to ensure that the country's financial system is protected against ML/TF, its capabilities are in the areas of financial intelligence and investigation, prosecution of ML/TF activities and partnerships with covered persons for compliance to national laws and international standards.

IV. Service Pledge

The AMLC commits to:

- 1. Provide efficient and responsive answers for the general's public queries regarding the AMLA, the TFPSA, its implementing rules, regulations, and issuances;
- 2. Develop and carry-out educational programs, carry-out capacity building activities, and effectively conduct AML/CTF training system for public and private stakeholders;
- 3. Ensure that AMLC personnel are always willing, available and ready to provide speedy assistance and guidance to law enforcement partners, government and private stakeholders, and the general public; and
- 4. Ensure that all applicants or requesting parties who are within the premises of the office or agency concerned prior to the end of official working hours and during lunch break shall be attended to.

1. Online Registration of Covered Persons

Office or Division:

In line with the AMLC's function of requiring, receiving, and analyzing covered transaction reports (CTRs) and suspicious transaction reports (STRs), covered persons (CP) are required to register with the AMLC's Online Registration System (ORS). Each entity has a Compliance Officer (CO) that transacts with the AMLC for the issuance of the Provisional Certificate of Registration (PCOR) and Certificate of Registration (COR).

Capacity Building Staff (CBS) External Services

The AMLC also functions as an AML/CTF educator in that it develops educational programs, carries out capacity-building activities or offers training opportunities, and conducts awareness campaigns on ML/TF.<sup>2</sup>

The AMLC develops an AML/CTF training system for public and private stakeholders, especially for the financial intelligence, investigation, and legal personnel, on the fundamentals of ML/TF, the AMLA and TFPSA, and all requisite knowledge, skills, and abilities to be able to discharge their functions effectively.<sup>3</sup>

1. Accreditation of e-Learning Providers

The AMLC accredits entities for the deployment effective Learning Management Systems on ML/TF that are cost-effective and technology-based.<sup>4</sup>

3. Accreditation of Institutional Training Providers

The AMLC accredits entities to also assist in the continuing training program of covered persons.<sup>24</sup> An institutional training provider facilitates and conducts effective training programs. This includes industry associations intending to provide their members with relevant training and other organizations offering continuing professional development and mandatory continuing legal education.<sup>25</sup>

a. AMLC does not have the information requested;

b. Information requested contains sensitive personal information protected by the Data Privacy Act of 2021;

c. Information requested is part of intelligence-gathering functions of the AMLC and partner government agencies;

d. Information requested pertains to the names and personal details of AMLC personnel;

e. Request is unreasonable, subsequently identical or substantially similar request from the same requesting party whose request has been previously granted or denied.

Section 4 of the FOI Updated Manual also states that the request is denied when the information falls under any of the exceptions to the right of access to information enumerated in Office of the President (OP) Memorandum Circular (MC) No. 89 on Updating the Inventory of Exceptions to the Right to Access of Information Under EO No. 2, series of 2016.

 $<sup>^{46}</sup>$  Under Section 2 of the Updated FOI Manual, the FOI Decision Maker has the over-all responsibility for the initial decision on all FOI requests.

Feedback and Complaints Mechanism

| How to send a feedback?       | The respondent may send their feedback or comments to secretariat@amlc.gov.ph.  |
|-------------------------------|---|
| How feedbacks are processed?  | The Receiving Officer acknowledges receipt of the email containing the feedback or comments and forwards those feedback or comments requiring answers to the relevant offices. The responses will be relayed to the respondent within fifteen (15) working days of the receipt of the feedback.   |
| How to file a complaint?      | The complainant may directly file his or her sworn statement with supporting documents before the AMLC. The sworn statement shall indicate the relevant facts, the covered persons and transactions involved, if any, and such other information that would meet the requirements for prosecution of money laundering offenses.   |
| How complaints are processed? | The Receiving Officer acknowledges receipt of the Sworn Statement with the supporting documents and forwards it to the Financial Crimes Investigation Group.  Upon receipt and evaluation, the AMLC initiates an investigation, subject to its risk-based prioritization, and the matter will become strictly confidential, pursuant to Section 8-A of the AMLA.  The Investigating Officer will contact the complainant, if necessary, to aid him or her in his investigation. |
