As an official association representing the Money Service Business (MSB) industry, with the support of the Bangko Sentral ng Pilipinas (“BSP”) and the Anti-Money Laundering Council (“AMLC”), ARCCO aims to:

- act as a forum for discussion for Non-banking Financial Institutions (NBFI) on Money Service Business (MSB) regulations and issues, and to advocate for the improvement of the MSB industry;
- liaise with the BSP, AMLC and its Secretariat, and all other regulatory, supervisory and government institutions governing the Money Service Business; and
- provide training services for entities and persons engaging or planning to engage in the Money Service Business.

On a more practical approach, ARCCO members work on educating themselves and developing shared expertise of identifying best compliance practices and industry risks, including emerging fraud and industry trends.

ARCCO was issued its SEC Certificate of Registration as a non-stock, non-profit association on 18 September 2018. The incorporators of ARCCO were all then-incumbent compliance officers of the largest local and international remittance companies. Since then, ARCCO has cemented its role in shaping the MSB industry. It has rolled out several trainings to equip officers, employees, consultants and board directors of MSBs with knowledge and skills to adapt to the digital age challenges and gatekeeping that the industry is not infiltrated by money launderers or any other financial crime actors.

ARCCO has taken to heart its mandate of gatekeeping the integrity and growth of the MSB industry, stressing the importance of striking a balance between financial inclusion vis-à-vis achieving a level of assurance that the industry will neither be used nor abused by money launderers, terrorists and their financiers, scammers and fraudsters which may lead to the discredit of the Philippine financial system.

ARCCO training pool includes chief compliance officers, AML/CFT/compliance practitioners and subject-matter-experts. It offers practical, grounded and hands-on trainings suited to Board of Directors, Senior Management, and frontliners.

The Center for Global Best Practices Foundation, Inc. is a non-profit institution established on March 6, 2007 with the vision of spreading the culture of best practices in the Philippines as well as in other countries. The advocacy of the Center is to enhance the global competitiveness of individuals and organizations across various industries through best practices initiatives.

To realize its vision, the Center for Global Best Practices is continuously initiating the following activities:

- 1) Research - This is one of the major activities of the Center and includes the following:
 - a) Research for new best practices material
 - b) Research for existing best practices material with new updates
 - c) Research to develop the center's own best practices material

Since best practices involves continuous improvement and innovation, research is an ongoing process for the Center. Learning materials are constantly updated to be relevant to the times.

- 2) Education - With the aid of research, the Center aims to spread the culture of best practices by educating the public through seminars, webinars, in-house training programs, conferences, workshops and similar activities. This mandate is also achieved in partnership with different institutions such as the Faculty of Civil Law – University of Santo Tomas, Enrique Zobel Foundation, Philippine Daily Inquirer, BusinessWorld, ING Bank, Price Waterhouse Coopers, Punongbayan & Arullo, Romulo Mabanta et al Law Office, among others. The Center also engages in international partnerships including educational institutions such as the National University of Singapore (NUS) and Golden Gate University (GGU). These collaborations are with the objective of bringing to the Philippines the executive programs from NUS and GGU at a much cheaper and competitive price for the benefit of the Philippine public. CGBP is also in partnerships with the International Chamber of Commerce Philippines and the Philippine Quality Awards Foundation.

- 3) Business Advisory / Consulting - The Center provides a pool of experts and seasoned practitioners in various fields of specialization. Those who need assistance or advise can tap into this pool to and benefit from this wealth of knowledge.

- 4) Awards - To create more awareness for its best practices advocacy, the Center is envisioned as an award-giving body to promote the spirit and practice of the culture of excellence. This initiative is an ongoing search for the first Best Practices Award.
